

Thursday, February 25, 2010

Matthew 7: 7-12

For everyone who asks, receives; and the one who seeks, finds; and to the one who knocks, the door will be opened.

I remember last summer when I was very unsure about my financial situation. I had been substitute teaching for the Francis Howell School District. I had worked for a company that closed due to economic reasons. I loved all my jobs but they seem to end beyond my control. I knew I needed to quickly improve my income. As a single mom, I wanted to be with my children during the summer break. I prayed daily to the Holy Spirit. God's voice would say, "I am taking care of the situation; enjoy the children. Don't worry." I felt God's presence telling me to take care of my children; He was taking care of my job, my financial path and my future. How could I rely on this powerful voice? I was SO scared.

About a month later, I got a call from the Wentzville School District to come in for an interview. I got a fulltime teaching position for this year!

When will I stop and listen to God's voice?

*I pray to the Holy Spirit for guidance in my decision-making.
I ask You, Lord, to fulfill my needs in the way You know is best.
I promise to stop and to listen to You instead of worrying.
Amen.*

Sandy Pizzo