

Wednesday, March 3, 2010

Matthew 20: 17-28

Whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant. "The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many."

Jesus is telling us about His passion, death and resurrection. Too often we are fighting about which of us is the greatest. To take this Lenten journey with Jesus is to be drawn to Him and to be like Him, a servant of love for others. A servant never stops thinking about God's people or about building up His Church. A servant never stops looking for ways to evangelize.

God has a plan for each one of us. What are you doing to discover what His plan is for you?

*God of Love, through this Lenten journey purify my desires to serve You.
Free me from any temptations to judge others
or to place myself above others.
Please let me surrender even my impatience with others that with Your love and Your grace
I might be less absorbed with myself, and full of the desire to follow You by laying down my life according to Your example Amen..*

Joyce Kluge